We review the construction of Lax type operators for finite W-algebras and their use to investigate the relationship between (twisted) Yangians and finite W-algebras. The talk is based on joint works with A. De Sole and V.G. Kac.